10 THIS WEEK BEST.
BY JOAQUIN MILLER.

It seems to me that Mother Earth is weary from eternal toil,
And longingly sighs for rest,
To all the agonies of death.

Let us be patient, then, and wait,
For the great day of our life,
When we shall stand before the throne,
And face the great God of the universe.

Let us be patient, then, and wait,
For the great day of our life,
When we shall stand before the throne,
And face the great God of the universe.

Let us be patient, then, and wait,
For the great day of our life,
